City of Culver City Vice Mayor Daniel Lee has a Master's Degree in Social Welfare from UCLA and is a doctoral candidate at USC. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for Move to Amend, the Backbone Campaign, Mockingbird Incubator and the Clean Power Alliance.

Daniel understands the issues being faced by his colleagues and the need to see that Mental Health is a priority for our state. He will be a champion of these issues along with the need for meaningful policies around affordable housing, the environment and environmental justice.

Join us for a conversation to see why NASW-CA is supporting Daniel's candidacy and how you can help!
