TODAY!

The NASW-CA Interns invite current BSW, MSW, DSW, and PhD (Social Welfare) students to attend!

This event is for current students attending California Social Work programs. We invite you to share your experiences and input as we discuss the ways that social work may bolster its commitment to fighting institutionalized racism and white supremacy.

There is no cost to attend. In addition to registering, please take a moment to complete this brief survey to help us understand how we can best support you.
