

SOCIAL WORK POLICY CONSORTIUM

How to Teach Social Workers to Access Their City Government

March 25th | 1 pm - 2:30 pm PT

Activating and inspiring social work students and professionals in local level politics.

Presented by: Victor Manalo & Guest Speaker

Victor Manalo,
Ph.D., MSW

Learn:

- About some of the most talked about local-level political issues that are on the minds of advocates and how individuals can get involved.
- Concrete student assignment samples to use in the classroom.
- Resources to differentiate what local resource is tied to what social justice issue – Teach social workers to maximize their impact with local leaders.

Come join our statewide consortium – membership is not required; all social workers and social work policy instructors are welcome.

Register:
<https://bit.ly/3ho8sr5>

For questions, please email
contact@naswca.org