

SUICIDE PREVENTION: BLACK YOUTH LIVES MATTER TOO (3 CEU)

✉ support@naswca.org

VIRTUALLY ON NOVEMBER 4, 2022
AT 1 - 4PM PT

We will discuss the additional challenges faced by Black youth, explore strategies to break down barriers, increase cultural competency amongst providers, and analyze the role of racial socialization as a protective strategy in reducing suicide attempts amongst Black youth.

PRESENTED BY
CRYSTAL
BENNETT, LMSW

FEES:

- Member: $30
- Non-member: $45
- Student Member: $15
- Student Non-member: $25

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Evaluate the impact of structural oppression & systemic racism on help seeking for Black families.
- Identify 3 racial socialization strategies to increase protective factors for Black youth.
- Define internalized oppression and identify its contribution to feelings of hopelessness.
- Understand the biopsychosocial model of suicide and articulate risk & protective factors for Black youth.
- Evaluate the use of risk assessment tools, cultural humility and unconditional positive regard to complete suicide screenings and assessment.
- Explore intervention and healing strategies, including radical healing, DBT and CAMS to empower young people, promote pride and provide strategies for coping.