

Support the Foster Youth Career Pathway Into Social Work

Due to the success of the Foster2SocialWork pilot that was launched earlier in the year, NASW-CA and the Southeast Los Angeles County Workforce Development Board are recruiting Social Workers and foster youth participants for a second cohort for Foster2SocialWork. This special project is designed to assist foster youth explore the career path of becoming a social worker.

Here's how YOU can get involved:

Refer youth to participate

Participants can anticipate:

- Paid work experience
- Job search assistance
- Vocational training
 - Career planning
 - Financial literacy
 - Much more!

Become a mentor

Help build a pipeline of future Social Work professionals! Mentor a foster youth at your work and guide them in exploring the many fields of social work.

Share your work experience

Volunteer to share your social work career experience with foster youth participants during the 2-week boot-camp.
