

SOCIAL WORK POLICY CONSORTIUM

A Story About Necessary Change: The Los Angeles Men's Central Jail

October 28 | 12 pm - 1 pm PT

Activating and inspiring social work students and professionals in local level politics.

Learn how Men's Central Jail was voted to close down due to a history of mistreating inmates and ill planning that forced dangerous conditions and overcrowding.

Hear from frontline advocates involved and ask important questions about the change needed.

Contact: ribarra.naswca@socialworkers.org

Come join our statewide consortium –

membership is not required; all social workers and social work policy instructors are welcome.

Interested in this workshop?
Stream our past Social Work Policy Consortiums!

FREE
REGISTRATION

UPCOMING SOCIAL WORK POLICY CONSORTIUM CONVENINGS

Where Do Social Workers Fit In?

January 2023

Social Workers have the power to move change in our criminal justice systems, housing resources, healthcare policies, and much more at the local level.

Hear from staffers of local elected officials about ways you can ensure the Social Work voice is heard as you lead change in your community.

Panelists TBD.

Lead Change and Advocate with NASW-CA at Legislative Lobby Days

April 16 & 17, 2023

A special opportunity will be announced for consortium members to learn about local-level change they can drive in their own communities.
Stay tuned for more information!

Contact: ribarra.naswca@socialworkers.org

Come join our statewide consortium – membership is not required; all social workers and social work policy instructors are welcome.

Registration coming soon!