

SOCIAL WORK POLICY CONSORTIUM

Where Do Social Workers Fit In?

February 10 | 12 pm - 1 pm PT

Activating and inspiring social work students and professionals in local level politics.

Guest Speakers:

Vanessa Marrero, MSW, PPS

Executive Director of Parents for Public Schools of San Francisco; Berkeley Rent Board Commissioner; Legislative Chair for the California Association of School Social Workers; Councilmember of The Justice and Equity for Transformation Council of the Office of Racial Equity (ORE)

Dr. Daniel Lee, DSW, MSW

Project Director at the James Lawson Institute; Former Culver City Mayor; Former Culver City Council Member

Other Speakers TBD

Social workers have the power to move change in our criminal justice systems, housing resources, healthcare policies, and much more at the local level.

Learn from social workers who are local elected officials, and discover how social workers can actualize local level change in communities.

Contact:

ribarra.naswca@socialworkers.org

Come join our statewide consortium - membership is not required; all social workers and social work policy instructors are welcome.

Interested in this workshop?
Stream our past Social Work Policy Consortiums!

FREE
REGISTRATION